THE HONG KONG COUNCIL OF SOCIAL SERVICE

Guidelines on the Election of Members of the Executive Committee, Standing Committees and Specialized Committees (2022-24)

1. Purpose

- 1.1 In accordance with the related stipulations of the Constitution of the Hong Kong Council of Social Service and the decisions of the Executive Committee, this Guideline is prepared to govern the nomination and election process of members of the Executive Committee, the Standing Committees, and the Specialized Committees (excluding the Specialized Committee on Rehabilitation Service) for the year 2022-24. Procedures of the election of members of the Committees shall follow the Clause 43 of the Constitution of the Hong Kong Council of Social Service.
- 1.2 Election of members of the Executive Committee will be held during the Annual General Meeting on November 25, 2022. A total of eight members will be elected into the Executive Committee. The elected members shall serve for a term of two years from 2022-24.
- 1.3 Election of members of the Standing Committees will be held during the Annual General Meeting on November 25, 2022. Since our Council is reviewing the governance structure, the announcement on the Terms of Reference of the Standing Committees, term of office will be issued in late September.
- 1.4 Election of members of the Specialized Committees on Family & Community Service, Children & Youth Service, Elderly Service and Sector Finance will be conducted through postal ballot, candidates who receive most votes must be declared elected. Eight members will be elected into the Service Specialized Committees. The elected members of the Service Specialized Committees shall serve for a term of two years from 2022-24.
- 1.5 In line with the Council's strategic development, six members will be elected into the Specialized Committee on Sector Finance and the term of office of the newly elected members is one year, that is, from 2022-2023. The arrangement had been approved by the Executive Committee.
- 1.6 The Executive Committee has decided that election of the Specialized Committee on Rehabilitation Service for the year 2022-24 will be jointly held with the election of the Management Committee of The Hong Kong Joint Council for People with Disabilities (herein after The Joint Council). Members intended to participate in this election could complete their registration with The Joint Council. The joint election will be held in November 2022 during the AGM of the Joint Council, where a maximum of 25 members will be elected for a term of one year. For details of the election procedures, it will be sent to those who have confirmed their membership with the Joint Council later.

- 4.2.4 Only one person from each Agency Member may be so nominated and elected in the same election of any Committees for any same period of office.
- 4.2.5 Before the closing of nomination, any change in the status of the candidate as a member of the Board or similar bodies, or as an employee of the Agency Member, shall nullify the nomination having been made. (Note: the concerned candidate can be re-nominated for the same election basing on his/her affiliation with another Agency Member before the closing of nomination.) After the closing of nomination, any change thereof shall nullify the nomination having been made. (Note: Based on the same principle, an elected member of any committees shall automatically cease to be a committee member of that committee when that elected member no longer serves as a member of the Board or similar bodies, or as an employee of the Agency Member that elected member belongs.)
- 4.2.6 Candidates under the following situations cannot be nominated for the same committee for more than 2 consecutive terms.
 - i) Under Clause 42 of the Constitution, ‘No person shall be eligible for election to the Executive Committee for more than 2 successive terms’;
 - ii) Under the terms of reference of all other committees, ‘No person representing the same agency shall be eligible for election or co-option to the Committee for more than 2 consecutive terms’;
 - iii) Under Clause 64(c) of the Constitution, ‘only one representative from the same Agency Member shall be nominated or co-opted to become member of the same Standing Committee for any same period of office’; and
 - iv) In accordance with the same principle of Clause 64(C) of the Constitution, only one representative from the same Agency Member shall be nominated or co-opted to become member of the same Specialized Committee for any same period of office.
- 4.2.7 A serving elected member of any committees whose term of office will continue in the following year shall not be nominated for the same committee’s election unless the elected member has resigned from office at the time of nomination.
- 4.2.8 Any person representing an Agency Member shall not be nominated for a committee’s election if another representative of the same Agency Member is a serving member of the same committee whose term of office will continue in the following year, unless that serving selected member has resigned from office at the time of nomination.
- 4.2.9 Any person who wishes to withdraw from the election after being nominated shall give an advance written notice to the Election Committee no less than 7 days before ballots are sent. The names of candidates who intend to withdraw from the election shall appear on ballots if sufficient prior notice is not given. Candidates who are elected but wish to give up their seats shall write to notify the Election Committee on their withdrawal.

4.2.10 If the number of candidates in the election of a committee is less than or equal to the number of seats of that committee, all candidates shall be declared automatically elected upon endorsement from the Chairperson of the Election Committee. Under such circumstance, no election shall be conducted for the concerned committee.

4.3 Eligibility for making nominations for the election
